HORSEHEATH, CARDINALS GREEN

TL 64 NW (North Side) 8/75

White Chimneys

Grade II

Cottage. C16, C17 and C18. Timber-framed, plaster rendered. Long straw thatch roof, of two ridge and eaves levels. Half hip to east end and mid-C17 brick ridge stack of diagonally set grouped shafts on square base. Single range of two bays, extended axially at each end by one bay and by an outshut at the back. Two storey centre bays, C16, originally jettied at east end. Three first floor modern casements. Chimney stack and, bay added to east end in late C17. One storey and attic. Modern casements. Entry now to east bay. The extension at the west end probably is late C18 or early C19, being the likely date of the chimney stack. Timber-framed, rendered and thatched. Inside: the C16 part of the cottage has a crown post roof with two way bracing to the collar purlin and a single downward brace to the tie-beam. Ceiling framing exposed.
